

20th September 2016 (Tuesday) - 7.30pm

Goes with the Territory

Mainly Australian music and poetry:

- Jonathan Paget (guitar)
- Glen Phillips (poetry and readings)

Venue: Kurongkurl Katijin Gallery (ECU, Mount Lawley, Bld. 15)

ENTRY BY DONATION (all proceeds to World Vision)

"Goes with the Territory" is a collaboration between two artistic researchers at Edith Cowan University. Jonathan Paget is a leading Australian guitarist, and Head of Classical Music at the WA Academy of Performing Arts. Reviews describe his "subtle, intimate artistry," and "brilliant technique." Glen Phillips is an acclaimed Australian poet and author of more than 40 poetry books, renowned for his poignant portrayals of the Western Australian bush. Reviewers say his work is "continually finding imagery for human emotions" and "poetry of love and landscape abound." He is Honorary Professor at the School of Arts and Humanities.